“Whenever someone thinks of heaven, they are filled with visions of the most perfect world. Not only is heaven a destination that all Christians are looking forward to, but Jesus encouraged us to pray for His kingdom to come on earth as it is in heaven,” says Sam Evans, Planetshakers Senior Worship Leader and Creative Director. “It is our passion and desire that your faith, prayers and expectation be stirred to join with ours as we sing this song together – ‘Heaven On Earth!’ Let our hearts be stirred once again to believe

God and that this world would see the true manifestation of God's kingdom through His people and His church everywhere.”

*Where You are is where I wanna be
In Your presence
There's no place that I would rather be
'Cause with You Jesus
It's heaven on earth
(“Heaven On Earth” chorus)*

A tangible, intentional expression of worshippers collectively pursuing the presence of God, Heaven On Earth highlights worship leaders Sam Evans, Joth Hunt (who also produced and mixed the album), BJ Pridham, Rudy Nikkerud, Chelsi Nikkerud and a full team of musicians, dancers and more.

Many of Heaven On Earth's songs were also broadcast live from America's largest faith-based television network, Daystar, into more than 180 countries worldwide during Planetshakers Kingdom Conference and from the arena park where the world normally watches the Australian Open Tennis tournament and other prestigious international sporting competitions.

Together with the CD, the 10 videos on Heaven On Earth's DVD each share a live, multi-camera visual experience. The recordings capture the gathering's dynamic atmosphere seasoned with singing, call and response, dancing and shouts of praise.
